

Longobardo, a respected member of the New York State Police, who was killed while serving his State.

A native of Amsterdam, New York, residing in Ballston Spa, Saratoga County, Trooper Longobardo, 32, is survived by his wife and 1-year-old son.

Trooper Longobardo, an 8-year veteran of the State Police, was a 1998 graduate of the New York State Police Academy, where he distinguished himself through his commitment of service to the Citizens of the State of New York.

Trooper Longobardo's commitment and dedication to protecting and serving the citizens of New York State was evidenced by his service in the elite Mobile Response Team. We recognize and thank Trooper Longobardo for his desire and dedication to the New York State Police Force.

Trooper Longobardo desire to serve his fellow Americans extended beyond his Police work, as he was also a Technical Sergeant in the New York Air National Guard, based out of Scotia, Schenectady County.

With great sadness, I, along with the Great State of New York and the United States at large, celebrate Trooper Joseph A. Longobardo achievements in life as we mourn his tragic passing in the line of duty. I thank you, Mr. Speaker, for offering me an opportunity to share with the House Trooper Longobardo's accomplishments and for allowing the chamber this chance to join the State of New York in honoring his life.

RECOGNIZES JEREMY REIS

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Jeremy Reis, a Private in the Marine Corps.

Private Reis attended Lovejoy High School in Jonesboro, Georgia, transferring his senior year to Newton County High, graduating earlier this year in May. His original post-graduate plans were to study art and photography, but following the events of September 11, Private Reis felt the call to duty and enlisted in the Marine Corps. When his tour of duty is complete he hopes to attend art school and fulfill his dream.

Entering basic training in August 2006 at Parris Island, South Carolina, Private Reis is training to be a computer programming specialist.

Raised as part of a close knit family, Private Reis is a member of his Church Youth group and enjoys hunting with his father and brothers. He also enjoys visiting his grandparents at their home in Citrus County, Florida. Private Reis has five dogs, including a pug named Mojo and a boxer named Jordan.

Mr. Speaker, it is soldiers like Jeremy Reis who volunteer to protect the freedoms that all Americans hold dear to their hearts. He is to be commended for his service to our Nation and for his commitment to his family and loved ones.

EXPRESSING CONDOLENCES TO FAMILIES, FRIENDS, AND LOVED ONES OF VICTIMS OF CRASH OF COMAIR FLIGHT 5191

SPEECH OF

HON. JERRY F. COSTELLO

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. COSTELLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Comair Flight 5191 and I join my colleagues in support of H. Res. 980. My deepest sympathies, thoughts and prayers are with the families and friends of the victims of this tragic event that occurred in Lexington, Kentucky.

It is little solace to them that we have the safest air transportation system in the world, or that we had not had a major fatal accident in five years. Along with our support of this resolution, what Congress must do to honor these victims is to learn everything we can from this accident to try to prevent similar events in the future. Their lives will be remembered in the work we do here. As the ranking Democrat on the Aviation Subcommittee, I am committed to making sure this happens. The National Transportation Safety Board is conducting a thorough investigation of this accident, and I fully support its efforts, along with those of the Federal Aviation Administration and the Inspector General of the Department of Transportation.

Mr. Speaker, I again remember those that lost their lives in this accident and offer my condolences to their loved ones. I also urge my colleagues to support H. Res. 980.

RECOGNIZING MR. LEO McHALE AND MARYLAND'S FIRST PRIVATE 9/11 MEMORIAL

HON. ROSCOE G. BARTLETT

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. BARTLETT of Maryland. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the efforts of one of my constituents, Mr. Leo McHale, of Walkersville, Maryland, to honor the heroes of 9/11.

With community support, Mr. McHale created Maryland's first private memorial to remember and honor the heroes who responded to the terrorist attacks and those who perished on September 11, 2001. It was dedicated on May 10, 2003.

I personally would like to thank Mr. McHale and the Walkersville residents whose joint efforts and hard work are responsible for the completion of this commemorative project. In spite of the terrible losses on that cataclysmic day, it is important to recognize the astounding community efforts and cooperative response that symbolize the character, pride and unity of the American people.

With 9/11's 5th anniversary approaching, it is essential that the American people continue to remember the events that occurred when America was attacked on September 11, 2001. Through the efforts of Mr. Leo McHale—and so many others—we continue to keep the memory alive by honoring the heroes who responded and the men, women and children whose lives were mercilessly and cruelly taken on 9/11.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO RANDOLPH C. ROBINSON, M.D., D.D.S

HON. THOMAS G. TANCREDO

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. TANCREDO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the dedicated and inspiring career of Dr. Randolph Robinson. Dr. Robinson, along with his wife, Ginger, founded Face the Challenge. This charitable organization has provided thousands of free surgeries to the world's poorest children in order to correct facial deformities.

Dr. Robinson has used his medical knowledge and surgical skills to better the lives of many impoverished people around the world. Face the Challenge has traveled to many countries in South America, Eastern Europe and Asia with the goal of treating the indigent and most affected.

Dr. Robinson, who practices in Lone Tree, Colorado, has performed 836 free facial surgeries since 1993. His selfless contributions should be commended and his dedication to public service deserves our highest regard. I wish to thank Dr. Robinson for his tireless efforts to bring medical advances to the world's poor.

IN MEMORY OF SERGEANT JEFFREY SCOTT BROWN, UNITED STATES ARMY

HON. PETE SESSIONS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Army Sergeant Jeffrey Scott Brown, an American hero who gave his life in defense of liberty and freedom. He made the ultimate sacrifice so that others might know freedom, and I am humbled by his bravery and selflessness.

Sergeant Brown lost his life on August 10, 2006 due to injuries sustained when his UH-60 Blackhawk helicopter crashed in Rutbah, Iraq during combat operations in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He was 25 years old. Sergeant Brown was assigned to the 82nd Medical Company at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Sergeant Brown came from a family dedicated to American ideals and serving this great Nation. His father is a Vietnam veteran and his brother, Timothy, currently serves as a crew chief on an Apache helicopter in Germany. Sergeant Brown is survived by his wife, Ashley, of Carrollton, Texas; his parents, Ed and Diane Brown of Trinity Center, California; his brothers, Timothy and Michael; and his sister, Kathryn.

I extend my sincerest condolences to the family and friends of Sergeant Brown. He leaves behind a legacy marked by courage, integrity and character. May God bless all those he loved, and may they know the gratitude of the American people.
